Subject: B&C Update

I know you are both swamped with the budget so I thought I'd pass on a non-numbers update for you guys. I've been in contact with lots of original supporters. All are very excited to serve. Here are a few that have started terms, or who are in the process of filling out applications.

Phil Schneider, Community Service Commission
Judy Bredberg, Community Service Commission
Britta Hansen, Community Service Commission
Kerm Ketchum, LBC (July 1)
Sandy Hoeft, Emergency Medical Services (I got a hold of Juanita and tracked her down)
Juanita Fuller (I killed 2 birds with 1 stone that day)
Don Benson
Adrian Lane
Marilyn Lane
Griz Smith, Safety Advisory Council
Amy McCorkell, Alcohol Drug Abuse
Floyd Dollerhide, Water and Waste Water Advis

You've made a total of 111 appointments since taking office December 4th. We're doing good.

Todd gave me some names from Dillingham this week. Sally and Chuck Jr. gave me a lot of names in the Valley and Rural. Juneau Chamber luncheons have brought about people too. I have June and July recommendations ready to go when you guys have a minute to breathe. I really feel good about them. I reached out to a wide supporter base with the help of the people mentioned above and several others. Dan was great. He's swamped finishing up in DNR, but is a very welcome addition.

Thanks, and good luck with the budget.

MESSAGE:

Dear Governor Palin;

First I would like to thank you for all the hard, honest, work that you and your staff are doing! Our state is the best, isn't it?

I want to ask if you have room in your schedule to speak at the upcoming Regional Youth Court Conference that will be held on November 9-11th in Seattle, WA.

The state of Washington has been trying to collaborate with us to have a conference and share ideas on how different places run their courts, and Alaska is in the front lines of the youth court movement.

I understand that Tucker Minnick has already contacted your office but I wanted to also ask you myself.

Youth Courts around the state continue to grow! The Mat-Su Youth Court just recently assisted Dillingham in starting a school based program. I was also asked to serve on the task force to organize the National Association of Youth Courts which will become official this December. And, Anchorage Youth Court is involved with getting a proclamation through Congress to make public National Youth Court Month in September by working with Senators Stevens and Murkowski.

As you can see, the youth court movement has continued to grow and Alaska remains a big part of this growth!

Thank you for your attention to this worthwhile cause,

Lisa Albert-Konecky, Program Coordinator, Mat-Su Youth Court

June 28, 2007

Dear Director Shier:

After too many months of calls and letters to your division and Premera because of Premera's ineptitude, lack of professionalism and courtesy, and common sense, I am forced to write you and copy Commissioner Annette Kreitzer and Governor Sarah Palin.

According to division employee Missouri Smyth who I spoke to on 6/13/07 I would receive a call within 2 days from the division's complaint office. Well, as you can see, it is now another 2 weeks and nobody has called me. Since this initial problem began 9 months ago and has escalated into multiple problems caused by Premera I believe I have been more then patient and understanding and request your immediate intervention and resolve to matters that have affected me financially and consumed enormous amounts of my time and energy while Premera shows how little they care and obviously how inefficient they are. When one has to mail and Fax the same item 4-5 times as I did my daughter's authorization for release of her records (she is 20) something is obviously very wrong. Changing from Aetna to Premera was a huge mistake.

Also, in Ms Smyth's case or any employee allegedly forwarding something for someone else to resolve it would seem prudent for that employee doing the forwarding to follow it up to make sure a promised contact has in fact been made. When I was a Compliance Officer for the Division of Environmental Conservation such a practice was mandatory! Thank you for your immediate assistance.

Sincerely,

Robert J. Faro

That sounds like a good plan. We can talk to Stoltze in the morning when he comes for the press conference.

I got in touch with Ron Miller. He is calling Homer Electric and Mat Elec.

Excellent on many fronts JK. Thanks for this update.

We received Exxon's $21,000,000 check for PT "delay". Another nice victory.

Subject: Alaska Related Riders/House Appropriations Bill

In view of your previous inquiry, I want to update you on the final = outcome of House action on the Alaska related amendments to the Interior = Appropriations bill.

In my opinion, these actions are significant for two reasons. = First, the amendments address important issues of public land = management and use in Alaska. Second, the House action may tell us = something about voting patterns regarding Alaska resource issues in the = current Congress.

Given the circumstances, I think we did quite well:

* By a healthy margin, the House defeated an amendment that would have = jeopardized polar bear management in Canada. This amendment was = opposed by the Canadian government, US Fish and Wildlife Service, various = wildlife groups, and us.

* Congressman Udall withdrew his amendment to restrict claims of access = under RS 2477 in the western public land states. Instead, legislative= history requests the Bush administration to report to Congress when = certain procedures and policies are implemented. This should not be = a significant barrier to RS 2477 claims.

* Amendments to prohibit the King Cove land exchange and oil and gas = leasing in Bristol Bay were not considered on the House floor.

* Our only real defeat was the House's adoption by a 2 to 1 margin of = the Chabot amendment, which would prohibit the construction of timber = roads through any roadless areas of the Tongass. At the moment, = there is no similar rider in the Senate's version of the Interior = Appropriations bill, and the Bush administration can be expected to oppose = the Chabot amendment because it would derogate from the Tongass planning = process.

Of course, this is just he first salvo in what may be a long campaign = in the current Congress. However, we will take victories where we = can, and perhaps our opponents will take heed that anti-Alaska resource = legislation may not be so easy to enact after all.

Please note that my email address has = changed. My new email address = is <mailto:jwkatz@alaskadc.org> jwkatz@alaskadc.org. = Thank you .
